On February 3, 2012, the State Bar of California, Office of the Chief Trial Counsel (State Bar) filed and served a Notice of Disciplinary Charges against respondent in case No. 11-N-19132. Rule 5.25 of the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar provides that “the initiating party . . . must address the service to the member’s address in the State Bar’s membership records.” Respondent’s membership records address on February 3, 2012, was 11852 Taiping Rd., Fengai, China. However, the NDC was addressed to respondent at 11852 Taiping Rd., Fengtai 100000, China, People’s Republic Of. Accordingly, as the NDC was not properly addressed to respondent’s correct membership records address, the court’s May 16, 2012 order entering respondent’s default and enrolling him inactive under Business and Professions Code section 6007, subdivision (e), is hereby vacated, nunc pro tunc, to May 16, 2012.

As the order entering respondent's default and enrolling him inactive is vacated, the court's January 28, 2013, order submitting this default matter for decision is hereby vacated, and the State Bar's petition for disbarment filed on December 12, 2012, is moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
